

Researches and Studies

The company provides financial and economic research & study on local and global financial markets, and the main commodity markets. The company publishes these researches papers and studies in the newspapers, web-sites, etc., in order to increase the investors' awareness about the markets events and trends.

- Summary of the research and study:

The Research Department prepares different types of reports and studies in accordance with the principles of technical analysis and exploration and examination of local and global, economic and political situations. following up with the corporate news, and issuing the appropriate recommendations thereof. The research and report vary according to their respective purposes. A study may be carried out to a specific company or a specific sector in the market, or to the financial market with its various sectors. The department also prepares economic reports for a particular country, or for the global economy in general.

- Types of researches:

The Research Department ,prepares a number of reports and studies, to name only a few:

1. The Saudi Stock Market Report.
2. The Global Markets Report.
3. Equity Research.
4. Companies Reports.
5. Mergers & Acquisitions Reports.
6. Market Research.
7. Equity Strategy Researches.
8. The Economic Report.

- The Sharia rules:

1. The company must rely on conducting its studies regarding on influential technical and realistic principles which do not contradict with the Islamic Sharia principles.
2. The company shall avoid using the economic and financial phrases that contradict the Islamic Sharia.
3. The company must confine its recommendations to the companies that comply with the sharia rules regarding trading and investment.
4. The company may not use those reports for illicit purposes such as preparing reports intended to raise the price of a share in order to achieve a profit for the company or for one of its customers.
5. The company is entitled to charge commissions for conducting and publishing the study and research.